GOOD RACING AT HARLEM.

Delightful weather, a fair attendance, a track that was fast the first half and comparatively slow next to the inside rail the last half, and good racing characterized the second day of the Harlem Jockey Club's meeting.

The winner, The Hub, was liberally backed at 8, 3 and 3 to 2 to win the opening dash.

Hugh Penny was the natural 4 to 5 favorite or the second race. Tony Licalzi's Donna Rita, with 8 to 5 against her, took the track in the first sixteenth and won all the way.

The ring made Valid an 8 to 5 favorite for the fourth race. Dorothy III was said to dislike the route. She was heavily played. She won impressively.

After the fourth race there was a lot of discussion as to how good Dave Waldo really is. He breezed the first half in 49, and five furlongs in 1:01, and won in a free gallop. Miss Gussie was the only one to get near him.

The fifth race was not truly run. Fonclif, having the inside position, failed to break as quickly as the others and in a hundred yards was next to last. He got through in the home stretch—too late. Lizzie Cavalier got away last and her chances were completely destroyed by Shepherd's anxiety to get through the field. She showed great speed but naturally weakened at the end. A more patient ride would certainly have given her a respectable position. Whether Graziella could not have won at the weights, regardless of accidents to others, is an open question. She certainly had speed to spare wherever it was required.

About every book in the ring suffered through the victory of Elsie G in the last race. She was the "good thing" of the day and was sturdily played and appeared to be the best.

John J. Carter, who was associated with Joseph A. Murphy in the judges' stand at Ingle-side and Oakland, and recently acted as presiding judge at both places; J. B. Ferguson, who handled the flag at Oakland, and Bookmaker Frank Eckert were among a party of turfmen who arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. Mr. Ferguson went to Lexington, Mr. Eckert goes to New York, and Judge Carter will remain here several days before assuming the duties of presiding official at the Northern Circuit meetings.

Speaking of the winter's racing on the Pacific coast, Judge Carter said: "We had successful meetings at both tracks. The last day at Oakland there were fourteen ring and two field books. During the winter there were days when thirty books did business. About the best horse that raced there was Geyser. Next to him were The Roman and Fleur de Lis. The best 3-year-old colt that ran out there was Traverser. Count of Flanders, owned by Tom Ryan, is also a good little horse. The best 3-year-old filly was Brier Sweet. Of the 2-year-olds I consider Olinthus, now in Galen Brown's stable at Hawthorne, the best colt, and Formero next. To-luca, owned by Sam Hildreth, was probably the best filly. A maiden 3-year-old of considerable class will start in the American Derby. He is the colt Borgia, owned by Boots & Son. Charley Boots is now at Sacramento, and will ship him here in a few days."

Jockey Hill will be at Harlem today and tomorrow. Saturday he will ride Lilian Bell in the Oaks at Oakley. Monday he will be back here to remain during the Harlem and Washington Park meetings.

None of T. C. McDowell's horses are likely to start this week. They have been coughing since they arrived at Harlem. Out of thirteen starts this season the stable has won eleven times and been second once. It won two races, lost one, then won nine straights, and ran second. Every horse sent to the post won its first time out.

Morris was engaged to ride Dave Waldo in the fourth race. By order of Judge Clark, Caywood was substituted.

The Petite Stakes, four and a half furlongs, for 2-year-old fillies, will be run at Harlem next Wednesday.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

FLEISCHMANN'S BUY DR. EICHBERG.

NEW YORK, May 25.—C. Fleischmann Sons bought Dr. Eichberg for $15,000 from Turney Bros. He is a good colt by Candlemas—Nell Swift.

MEMORIAL HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Secretary Nathanson has assigned the weights for the Memorial Day Handicap 1 1-16 miles, to be run at Harlem next Monday, May 30. It is the first stake event of the meeting and with so many good horses engaged that it can hardly fail to be productive of a highly interesting contest. The weights are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Candelaria, Eddie Jones, Odds On, Bliss Rucker, Obsidian, Excursion and First Tenor will be members of the Burns & Waterhouse string that will reach Chicago shortly. First Tenor is a Falsetto 2-year-old that has not started as yet. He is a slashing fine fellow and great things are expected of him.

Julius Bauer is beginning to show a good hand at Morris Park as trainer of the Bromley & Co. stable. He has during the past week won respectively with Onondaga's Pride, Semper Ego and Kenmore Queen, each carrying a large stable commission. Several of his horses have also been placed.

Tuesday's New York Sun says: "At the Morris Park track yesterday Buddha, 4-year-old, by The Bard—Empress, the property of R. E. Hall, and trained by Wyndham Walden, broke down hopelessly while being worked. He was probably the best colt ever sired by that great racehorse."

Shipmate, dam of First Mate, dropped a full brother to First Mate at Neponset stud farm, Massachusetts, recently, but the colt unfortunately died. Mr. Forbes paid a large sum for Shipmate last fall. She will be mated with Meddler.

Barney Schreiber has lost his filly Sorrow by the selling race route. She was entered to be sold for $300 in the race she won Tuesday and was run up to $800 at which price Barney let her go.

Glenheim was suffering from "bucked" shins in his last race, which accounts for his indifferent showing. The ailment was not discovered until after the race.

Lonnie Clayton has been engaged to ride Ornament in the Brooklyn Handicap—Saturday and will go to New York to-night for that purpose.

Jockey J. Brendle, long under suspension, has been put on probation and given a conditional Turf Congress license to ride for H. E. Leigh.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, OR THE ART OF MAKING MONEY AT THE RACE TRACK' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Wathe, & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of Monday says: "Jake Marklein yesterday sold his 4-year-old Iroquois gelding Sedan after he won the second race to J. H. Smith for $400. Sedan has alternated between Marklein's and Smith's stable for the past year. At New Orleans Smith bought Sedan out of a selling race from Marklein for $400. A couple of months later Marklein re-purchased Sedan from Smith for $350. The gelding won several races for Marklein and more than earned his feed bills. Yesterday Smith was seized, with a yearning to again possess Sedan, and he negotiated with Marklein for his purchase. Sedan was entered to be sold for $300, and when Marklein placed his figure at $400, Smith promptly accepted it. Sedan is keeping Elkin, Pat Garrett and others company.

The $5,000 Labor Day Stakes, to be decided at Anaconda, Mont., September 5, received a total of 51 entries, a list that Manager Ed Tip-ton may well be proud of. Among the horses entered are such good ones as Ogden, Isidor, Senator Bland, Rubicon, Goodrich, Grady, Ostler Joe, John Havlin, Serrano, Ace, J. A. Gray, Han d'Or, Banished, Salvation, Scottish Chief, Bitter Root, Dan Rice, Frank Thompson, Galivant, Joe Clark, J. H. C. Judge Quigley, Count of Flanders, Schiller, Byron McClelland and Remp. There will evidently be good racing up in Montana this year.

People hereabouts who may be wondering why certain of their turf friends who have spent the winter and spring in 'Frisco have not put in an appearance, now that racing there is over, may find the matter accounted for in the following remark of the San Francisco Chronicle of last Saturday: "There are several score of racetrack followers who have pressing business on the different eastern racetracks just at present, but the majority of them will have to win out the price of transportation this afternoon."

Jean Beraud is a big colt on short legs. He is a type rarely to be noted among really high class horses, but when one of this sort is good he is likely to be unusually good. Jean Beraud has a splendid back and loin. He is short coupled, short below the knee, has great quarter development, and almost perfect action. Such a horse is likely to develop the ability to carry weight and go any distance, as Carbine, a horse of similar type, did in Australia.—Morning Telegraph.

H. F. Edwards will take in the Montana circuit this season with Magdalenes, Lady Ashley and Etta H. Mr. Edwards has had a fair share of success and expects to conclude arrangements with J. Naglee Burke to campaign Bellicosco, Coda, Thelma and Dolore on the northern tracks, and may also take Mistletoe from the Boots stable.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. Julius Fleischmann states that the report that he would sell his stable and retire from the turf next season is erroneous. He will campaign a string next year on eastern tracks, and that the sale of his horses would simply be a weeding out one. The good horses will be retained and those of inferior class will be sold.

Galen Brown has leased the running qualities of Diomed, a yearling full brother to Olinthus and Diggs.

Winner—B. g. by Fordham—Bonnie Knight.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second driving and swerving. The Hub was very tired and only good handling kept him from going to pieces the last fifty yards. Mizzoura swerved three or four different times the last quarter. He was going strongest though at the finish. Fascade ran an improved race. Charlo had a lot of speed but ran out at the head of the stretch. The Dragon showed some early speed. So did Speedy Cass, who had to go around his field. The latter has worked well.

Winner—B. f, 4, by St. Blaise—Active.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next four were driving. Donna Rita is good now. She had the speed of the party, and could have won further off. Caywood shook the filly up about the sixteenth pole. Hugh Penny had no excuses. He was hard ridden all the way. Tenole ran far above the notch. Cherry Leaf could not untrack himself the first part, but finished like a lion. Watch him over a distance of ground. Sidonian was sharply cut off and had to pull up. Flotow seemed lame and had no speed. Miss Casey did well as far as she went. Tab Carrie F for cheaper company.

Winner—B. m, 5, by Prince Royal—Press Onward.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; the next three also under keen pressure. Dorothy III got away flying and ran kindly. She is an in and out and consequently a bad betting tool. Kirk had no excuses and ran his race. He was closing fast at the end. Swordsman got through a tight hole on the far turn and saved a lot of ground by doing so. Valid could not run fast enough to become a contender. Harry Shannon did not like the going and seemed to prop all through the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Sayre—Helianthus.
Off at first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second, third and fourth driving hard. Dave Waldo was the best. He is a shifty horse and has been underestimated. The colt had a lot of luck in the race though, at that. Miss Gussie ran a good race. She can be tabbed for early action. Jackanapes was sharply cut off at the start and made up ground throughout. Turner evidently thought it was no start and pulled Duke of Haven up as the barrier arose. But for this he would have been a keen contender. The Dauphin ran a vile race. Locust Blossom showed a lot of early speed. She is ready and can win among her own.
Overweights—Miss Gussie, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Aintree—Quick.
Off at first break to a fair start. Won hand ridden; second and third driving hard. Graziella got away well on her stride and had speed enough to carry her the entire route. Candleblack seemed to have her beaten on the turn for home, but went to pieces right at the end. The winner is a good filly and this race should put her on edge. Al Fresco ran a good race under a bad ride. Lizzie Cavalier was off poorly and made up her ground too fast. With an equal break she might have won. Friar John had a lot of bad luck. He was shut off and messed about on every turn. Fonclif was shut off at the start and never had a chance.
Scratched—Treeby, 97; Joe Clark, 113.

Winner—Br. f, by Leonard—Little Grove Queen.
Off at first break to a good start. The first four were driving hard at the finish. Elsie G is a bad actor at the post and was extremely lucky in getting away at the first break. She is a filly with a lot of speed and also has courage. Buena Ventura is a dasher only. She had no excuses. Rutter got her away nicely and rode a clever race. She simply was not good enough to win. Mouzeltoff is an honest filly. She stood a long drive gamely. Watch Mazie V. It was her first public appearance and she was a trifle green. This trick has worked fast. Martha Fox ran a fair race.
Scratched—Satin Slipper, 108; Espionage, 104.
